

Senstar Symphony 7.2 Video Management Software Now Available

Senstar is pleased to announce the release of Senstar Symphony 7.2, the latest version of its intelligent video management software (VMS).

The award winning Senstar Symphony delivers an all-in-one solution for video management, video analytics, PIDS integration, and alarm management for deployments of all sizes.

Key highlights:

- Securely share video clips with 3rd parties with integrated cloud video upload feature
- Revamped Alarm Console allows for better event management with simplified workflow
- Seamlessly navigate from camera to camera with Visual Tracking Links
- PostgreSQL database support

Availability

Senstar Symphony 7.2 is available worldwide in Arabic, Chinese (Simplified), English, French, German, Portuguese, Spanish and Turkish. Senstar hardware appliances such as the R-Series can be upgraded to the latest version with a valid maintenance agreement.

Download a free 30 day trial here.